OPTIONAL PROVISIONS

No director shall have personal liability for any action taken, or any failure to take action, as a director, except liability for (a) any appropriation, in violation of the director's duties, of a corporate business opportunity, (b) acts or omissions involving intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) the types of liability described in Sections 14-3-831 and 14-3-860 through -864 of the Georgia Nonprofit Corporation Code (relating to liability for unlawful distributions and conflicting interest transactions), and (d) any transaction from which the director received an improper personal benefit. The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable or educational purposes. No part of the property or net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services rendered. The Corporation shall not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation to such an extent that it would not be granted or lose an exemption from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Tax Code") or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law ("Section 501(c)(3)"). The Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office. The Corporation shall be managed, its affairs regulated, and indemnity provided to its officers and directors as provided in its Bylaws. The number, term, qualifications, and method of electing the Corporation's directors and the directors' authority are set out in its Bylaws. The method of amending the Bylaws is set out in the Bylaws. If the Corporation is classified as a "private foundation" under the Tax Code, then: (a) The Corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Tax Code (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws). (b) The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Tax Code (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws). (c) The Corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Tax Code (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws). (d) The Corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Tax Code (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws). The Corporation may not make any "distribution," as defined in the Georgia Nonprofit Corporation Code, to any organization other than an organization which is exempt from income taxes pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) and which is described as eligible to receive "charitable contributions" under Section 170(c) of the Tax Code or any corresponding provision of any future federal tax laws. Upon dissolution of the Corporation, after making the distribution of assets required by the Georgia Nonprofit Corporation Code, the remaining assets shall be distributed: (a) to a State, a possession of the United States, or any political subdivision of the foregoing, or to the United States or the District of Columbia, but only if the assets distributed are to be used for exclusively public purposes, as defined in Section 170(c); or (b) to an organization exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Tax Code; or (c) any combination of the foregoing. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not engage in any activity or make any distribution or payment not permitted to be engaged in or made: (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3); or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c).
