OPTIONAL PROVISIONS

1. Necessary Authority - The Corporation shall be authorized to do all and everything necessary, suitable, or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, the attainment of any of the objects, or the exercise of any authority set forth in these Articles, either alone or in conjunction with other corporations, firms, or individuals, and either as principal or agent, and to do every other act or acts, things or things, incidental or appurtenant to or growing out of or connected with the above-mentioned objects, purposes, or authority. The corporation shall have and exercise any and all power that corporations have and may exercise under the laws of the State of Georgia, specifically including the provisions of O.C.G.A § 14-2-302, and as the same may be amended, except such powers as are inconsistent with the express provisions of these Articles of Incorporation. 2. Liability of Directors - No director of the Corporation shall be liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as a director; provided that this provision shall eliminate or limit the liability of a director only to the extent permitted from time to time by the Georgia Business Corporation Code or any successor law or laws. [O.C.G.A. § 14-2-202]. 3. Interested Directors - In the absence of fraud, a director of the corporation shall not be disqualified by his or her office from dealing or contracting with the corporation nor, in the absence of fraud, shall any transaction or contract with the corporation be affected in any manner by reason of the fact that a director or firm with which a director is associated is in any way interested in such transaction or contract if, at the meeting of the board of directors adopting or ratifying such a transaction or contract, (1) the interested director discloses the interest and refrains from voting on the transaction or contract; and (2) the transaction or contract is adopted or ratified by a majority of the board of directors. 4. Shareholders Meetings Quorum - The presence, at any shareholders meeting, in person or by proxy, of person(s) entitled to vote fifty-one percent (51%) of the shares of the Corporation then issued and outstanding shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. 5. Amendment of Articles of Incorporation - The corporation reserves the right to amend, add to, or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation, in a manner consistent with law and in conformity with the provisions set forth in these Articles and in the Bylaws.
