OPTIONAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE I. PURPOSES. The corporation is organized exclusively for religious, charitable, educational, literary, and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law) (the "IRC"), including the making of distributions to organizations exempt at the time under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRC. ARTICLE II. RESTRICTIONS. Section 1. No Private Inurement. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, trustees, officers or other private persons; except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article I hereof. The corporation shall not have capital stock, shareholders or members. Section 2. No Substantial Lobbying. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. Section 3. No Political Campaigning. The corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Section 4. Other Restrictions. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRC, or by a corporation to which contributions are deductible under Sections 170(b)(1)(A) and 170(c)(2) of the IRC. ARTICLE III. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. The corporation is organized pursuant to the Georgia Nonprofit Corporation Code. To the fullest extent permitted under the Georgia Nonprofit Corporation Code (the "Georgia Code"), no Director or officer of the corporation shall have any personal liability to the corporation for any monetary damages for breach of duty of care, loyalty, or other duty as a Director, by reason of any act or omission occurring on or subsequent to the date when this provision becomes effective. ARTICLE IV. INDEMNIFICATION. To the fullest extent permitted under the Georgia Code, each person who is or was a Director or officer of the corporation, and each person who is or was a Director or officer of the corporation who at the request of the corporation is serving or has served as an officer, director, partner, joint venturer, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise shall be indemnified by the corporation against those expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement which are allowed to be paid or reimbursed by the corporation under the laws of the State of Georgia and which are actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, in which such person may be involved by reason of his being or having been a director or officer of this corporation or of such other enterprises. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, this Article IV is intended to provide indemnification to each director and officer of the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Georgia Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader rights than said statute permitted the corporation to provide prior thereto). ARTICLE V. DISSOLUTION. Section 1. Dissolution. The Board of Directors may cease corporate activities and dissolve and liquidate the corporation, by a vote of two-thirds of the Directors in office at the time the proposal of dissolution is approved. Section 2. Liquidation. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall pay or make provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, and shall thereafter dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes stated in Article I hereof in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, literary or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRC, as the Board of Directors shall determine. Section 3. Contingent Provision. If any such assets are not so disposed of, the appropriate court of the county in which the principal Georgia office (or if none the Georgia registered office) of the corporation is then located shall dispose of such assets exclusively for the purposes stated in Article I herein, and exclusively to such organization or organizations which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes and at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under such Section 501(c)(3) of the IRC, as said court shall determine. ARTICLE VI. CONTINGENT RESTRICTIONS. In the event that the corporation is determined by the Internal Revenue Service to be a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509 of the IRC, and only during the period during which such determination applies, notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, this Article VI shall apply and the corporation shall: (1) not engage in any act of "self-dealing" (as defined in Section 4941(d) of the IRC) that would subject the corporation to tax under Section 4941 of the IRC; (2) distribute its income for each taxable year for the purposes specified in Article I herein at such time, in such manner, and in such amounts as are necessary to avoid subjecting the corporation to tax under Section 4942 of the IRC; (3) not retain any "excess business holdings" (as defined in Section 4943(c) of the IRC) that would subject the corporation to tax under Section 4943 of the IRC; (4) not make any investments that would jeopardize the carrying out of any of the exempt purposes of the corporation (within the meaning of Section 4944 of the IRC) that would subject the corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the IRC; and (5) not make any "taxable expenditures" (as defined in Section 4945(d) of the IRC) that would subject the corporation to tax under Section 4945 of the IRC.
